Press Release

As part of initiative to encourage artists to showcase their artistic work during the COVID-19 lockdown, Indian Council of Cultural Relations (ICCR) has been collaborating with eminent artists to provide them ICCR's platform to launch their virtual art works. ICCR has launched a video named 'Life Again', which is an international collaboration of 20 eminent musicians from across the globe and India (from Corona affected countries) who have performed in this specially composed music video during the Covid pandemic. Details of musicians are attached separately.
